TIMORE DEAL COMPLETED. Byrne Receives $10,000 in Cash and the Transfer of Stock Between Vonderhorst, Hanlon, Abell and Ebbets Is Made-All Ready for the League Meeting To-Day. When the National League baseball magnates go into session at the Fifth Avenue Ho-tel for their annual spring meeting to-day, they will receive the official announcement that the Brooklyn and Baltimore clubs have been consolidated and that a great team of stars under the management of Edward Hanlon will play at Washington Park this year. The legal details of the transaction were completed yesterday at the law offices of Redding & Kiddle in the Potter building, and the pa-pers were signed and sealed.

H.R. Vonderhorst, Edward Hanton, H. R. Borman and Lawyer Clendinen, representing the Baltimore Club; F. A. Abell, C. H. Ebbets, W. G. Byrne, J. J. Doyle, A. W. Kiddle and Isaac Moss, representing the Brooklyn Club stock, were those on hand at 11 o'clock. Mr. Kiddle opened the ball by selling his stock to Abell. In accordance, then, with the order of Judge Nevius of the Hudson County Circuit Court, Byrne produced a bond for $2,000, duly approved, to indemnify the Brooklyn Club for the reissue of a new certificate of sixty-one When the lawyers had examined this tond and had pronounced it satisfactory, the new certifleate; was handed to Byrne and Doyle. That made it plain sailing; so Byrne, being in possession of 311 shares, $1,100 worth of bonds and a claim of $1,300 back salary due the late C. H. Byrne, was prepared to close his part of the deal.

put his hand into his pocket and hauled out $10,000 in erisp $500 bills. He held the money tightly and asked Byrne to hold out his belongings at least half way. The motions each precisely at the same moment that Abell got the certificates, bonds and salary demand. Byrne thrust the roll into his pocket, after handing $5,000 to Doyle, and then invited the other Brooklyn and Baltimore stockholders out to a neighboring cafe, where, it is said, several cold buttles were consumed in response to the tonst, "Hurdles and Blockades." an expression that has become widespread in bunch of proxies, hurried over to Jersey City to Lawyer A. C. Wall's office, his object being hold a stockholders' meeting at which the jub's charter could be amended so that in future the club cannot vote away money bein the new club. Incidentally, the stock held in the new club. Incidentally, the stock held by T. C. Simpson and Dr. H. C. McLean was surrendered. Ebbets then hustled back, and after several important details had been gone over the transfer of stock was accomplished. Anell handed over 20 per cent, of the Brooklyn (Lub's stock in certificates to Vomderhorst and received a similar amount of the Baltimore that stock. Abell will retain 40 per cent, of the Brooklyn stock, including a share to be held by A. C. Wall, the club's attorney in New Jersey. Ebbets will keep 10 per cent, having surrendered 12-5 per cent, in order to complete the deal. The paters were signed by Vonderhorst, Handon, Abell and Ebbets, and that ended the long negotiations.

As The So's has already outlined, the President of the new Brooklyn Club will be Ebbets, as a salary of $4,000 a year. Underhorst and Abell will be Secretary and Treasurer, respectively, both to receive ealaries, while Handon will get $10,000 a year for managing the team. Vonderhorst, Handon, Abell, Ebbets and Wall will be the directors. Handon has already been elected President of the Baltimore Club and he will retain the office for one year, although he will baye nothing to do with that organization's affairs. The Baltimore Club, by the way, may be managed by John C. Chapman, as The Sus said some time ago. Chapman will have a talk with Handon and Vonderhorst this

The Brooklyn and Baltimore players will be ordered to report on March 29. The Brooklyns will be taken to Augusta, Ga. and the other players, who will probably constitute the Baltimores, will go either to Savannah or Macon. I intend to arrange a series of six or more games between the teams and shall reserve the right to decide on the linal make-up until Auril 15. After that date all relations will be declared off and the teams will have to fight their own battles. McGraw and Robinson are already talking of the probable strength of the new Baltimores, and the series between them and the Brooklyns will be hot. "I expect to hear from Joe Corbett in a day or two. He has received a contract calling for the League salary limit. $2.400. Corbett asked for $3.000 and expenses to and from California last year, and because his terms were not accepted he did not play ball. I may make a few deals for players this week, but my plans have not been completed. No, I have not decided whether Griffin will be captain or not of the Brooklyn."

A Story That Tim Hurst Was Whipped by

According to a story that comes from San Francisco, Tim Hurst, the noted League base-ball umpire and referee of glove contests, received recently a severe thrashing at the hands of Al Weinig, the trainer of Cycler Jimmy Michael. It appears that during the recent six-day bicycle race in 'Frisco Hurst made six-day bicycle race in Frizco Hurst made some disparaging remarks about professional riders, declaring them to be the "seum of the sporting world." Weinig replied with a right-hand swing on Hurst's jaw, and before Timothy could retalize he had administered a sound thumping to the little Irishman. It is said that Hurst's countenance was so badly damaged that he was compelled to remain within doors for several days. When Hurst took his first outing after the affray he met Weinig, who said:

"Hello, Tim! Who has been punching you? Let me know his name and I'll knock his head off!"

I suppose you'll turn prizefighter now!"

There is an abnormal activity among inventors devising lamps to burn a cetylene gas, and this style of illuminator is progressing rapidly toward perfection. The oil lamps at the same time are being made better and cheaper in order to hold their place in the fleid, and the consumer is reaping the benefit. The competition is not confined to the makers of oil and acetylene lamps, however. There are internal dissensions. This is especially noticeable among the acetylene advicates, who are divided into two classes.

seven of the Board of Governors who had resigned after receiving a petition signed by over a hundred of the members, it was understood, had agreed to again assume office, and peace reigned serene. Now it appears that the offer to again assume office was on the condition that the captain, Otto Hockmeyer, should give up his office. The present situation, with Lawrence's retirement, who was the primary cause of the falling out among the players, is now more mixed up than ever. The outcome of the matter will probably be a new election, and to that extent a new organization for the of the matter will probably be a new election, and to that extent a new organization for the year, after which the discontented members may drop out and the cinb will again move ahead in the old and progressive way. Otto Hockmeyer has the confidence of the men who use the links the most, and they propose to stand by him in this crisis. Pending other arrangements Secretary Leavitt is now the acting head of the club.

Individual Honors. With the exception of two adjourned games which will be finished to-day the final round of Association tournament was played at the coms of Berkeley School yesterday afternoon. The close race for the first prize between Cutler of bringing out a large crowd of students and boards the room was filled to its atmost enna-soon after the youthful experts took to their boards the room was filled to its atmost capacity. The handsome silver trophy cup and the three individual medals were on exhibition and were admired by all present. The tournament has proved one of the most successful held under the auspices of the association. The representatives of Cutler School played a fine game throughout, and their school held the lead from beginning to end by their excellent playing. Pierce chehed the championship for his school as well as the individual honors by defeating Newborg of Sachs School in twenty-eight moves. Eddinger of Hamilton Institute and Keeler of Columbia Grammar School finished their game in twenty-seven moves. The former played a much better game throughout, and finally cornered his man, announcing mate in four. The result of the two adiourned games is awaited with keen interest, as it leaves in doubt both second place in the tournament and second individual honors. It looks as though Manson of Cutler would win his game with Arnstein of Sachs School.

After the adjourned games to-day a meeting will be held to consider the advisability of playing Mannal Training High School of Brooklyn for the interscholastic chess championship of Greater New York. The games, if arranged, will take place at the rooms of the Central branch of the Y M. C. A. of Brooklyn. ### Hockey. A formal protest has been entered by the New York A. C. against Ellison of the Brooklyn Skating Cirib. The Brooklyn team won all their games in the Amateur Hockey League series, but if the charges made against the amateur standing of Ellison are proved, their title to the championship will be invalidated. as he has played in all the games this season.

The New York A. C. is backed in its effort to keep backey clear of professionalism by the St. Nicholas Skating Club. Neither of the protest-tag ciubs will benefit if the games played by the Brooklyn team are thrown out. The Hockey Club of New York is next in order, and will be the champion club if the Brooklyns are dissumatible?

Hockey Club of New York is next in order, and will be the champion club iff the Brooklyns are disqualified.

The charge against the Brooklyn player is that he played on the Yonkers Roller Polo Club for money. Several of the other members of the tenin say that they received pay for their services, and that Ellison also received money in their presence for playing roller polo. One affidavit to this effect was submitted with the profest, and others are in course of preparation.

The league is composed of five clubs. Two of these are already arrayed against the Brooklyn team and engaged in procuring evidence to support the charge that Ellison is a professional. If the Hockey Club of New York or the Monteinic Skating Club takes the same view as the St. Nicholas and N. Y. A. C., the championship of the league will rear with the Hockey Club. An officer of the New York A. C. says:

"It is true that we have filed charges against Ellison of the Brooklyn team on the ground of professionalism. Two weeks ago I was informed that he had played roller polo for money. We have now all the proof necessary in the case. The only motive in making the charges is to keep the hockey players up to the high standard which existed when the gares was started."

The pride of the organizers of the New Jersey A. C. was taken into consideration when the emblem came up for debate and it was voted to combine the two emblems. In future the cherry diamond of the K. A plan was perfected by which the Knickerbocker A. C. will become the owner of the plans at Bayonne by April 1. When it is carried out improvements in the property will be made. The boathouse will be enlarged, the clubhouse renovated and a much-needed cafe and restairant added.

It was decided to continue the N. J. A. C. committees on baseball and cricket, and to put strong teams in the field in both sports this season. The carenova the A. The Seawanhaka Cup Winner Dominton Will Race Again.

MONTREAL, Feb. 27 .- The yacht Dominion. winner of the Seawanhaka Challenge Cup in 1898, will race again the coming summer. This was decided upon to-day, when the committee of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club accepted the challenge of the White Bear Yacht Club of Minneapolis. The Dominion is to be sailed exactly the same as last rear, and the yacht to oppose her is to be one of the boats which was constructed last season. This, of course, will be a match race, and will have nothing to do with the Seawanhaka. Corinthian Challenge Cup. The Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club will, however, hang up a cup as a trophy. The conditions under which the races will be sailed will be the same as those that prevailed when the Seawanhaka Cup was at stake. This means that it will be the best three out of five. The time set is on or about June 12.

The challenge was sent over the name of H. T. Brake, the Commodore of the White Bear Yacht Club. Arthur Hamilton, Chairman of the Racing Committee, sent a telegram to Drake to-day in which he said the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club accepted in accordance with the terms of their letter of Feb. 12. 1898, will race again the coming summer.
